Obesity is a condition of increased body weight caused by excessive accumulation of fat.

These days, the soft drink consumption increases; people drink four times as much soda pop as milk today. In the past 30 years, the obesity rate has more than doubled. Some doctors ask the government to push to require health warning labels on the sides of soda cans, while the soda pop companies claim that the warning label is over-reaction.

5. Do you agree or disagree with the following claim? Use the specific reasons and claims to support your idea.

The government should require health warning labels on the sides of soda cans.
